Mohammedans are fighting Hindus in India as usual. Mohammedans cooked some beef, which horrified Hindus, by whom the cow and all its relations are held sacred.

War started, a village was burned, and a Sikh officer in the British service was burned alive.

Then Mohammedans threw the beef into Hindu temples. The Hindus, for revenge, threw dead dogs into the Mohammedan mosques, greatest insult you can offer a Mohammedan.

Hindus won't eat beef. Mohammedans won't eat pork. Englishmen eat both and rule Mohammedans and Hindus.

Madame Edie, Turkish lady, tells the ethical culture society that Turks don't like Kemal Pasha's methods. He is Europeanizing Turkey too suddenly, and Turks are determined to remain Turks.

Kemal follows the methods of Peter the Great, who found himself ruler of Russia, an Asiatic country, and made it European.

The Russians wanted to remain Russians, but he wouldn't let them, and compelled even old men to cut off their long beards. Some said that was because he could not grow a good beard of his own.

The old Russians saved their beards, and were buried with them, to prove to the Angel Gabriel that they had not cut them off voluntarily.

A big New York bank that shut down, with its many branches, recently, it lent tens of millions without security. Some of its own directors were among those that borrowed so pleasantly.

The late Vice President Marshall said "that this country needs is a good five-cent cigar."

What it needs now seems to be honest local government, including banking supervisors, magistrates and others.

New York, like other states, has bank examiners, but needs somebody to examine the bank examiners.

Mr. Mitchell, chairman of the New York National City bank, tells congress that payment of the soldiers' bonus amounting to nearly four thousand million dollars would cause "hundreds of small bank failures." Issuing so many government bonds would knock down existing bond prices, not only national but municipal, state and industrial.

The worst of the statement is that it is probably true.

It is suggested in Washington that a compromise can be reached, President Hoover consenting to a bond issue that would pay one half instead of all the soldiers' bonus.

It is financial anarchy and worse to suggest it, but why not the government print bonds, and sell them at prices acceptable to investors and thus cheapen the value of all existing bonds?

Why not let the federal reserve print money, perfectly good currency, hand it to the soldiers and say: "Go ahead and spend it and increase prosperity." We need more chips in our national game and those chips are money.

The government would have no

SALEM CHAPTER SENDS CHECK TO RED CROSS UNIT

$1,200 For Drought Relief Goes To National Headquarters

DRIVE CONTINUES; $600 MORE NEEDED

Make Contributions As Quickly As Possible, Public Urged

A check for $1,200 was mailed Monday to national Red Cross headquarters at Washington, D. C., by Mrs. Myra Woodruff, executive secretary of the Salem Red Cross chapter, as Salem's first payment in its campaign for funds to aid sufferers in drought-stricken areas.

Drive Will Continue
With the quota for this city set at $1,800, the campaign will continue until Salem reaches or surpasses its goal. Mrs. Woodruff said today. She was confident that the quota will be reached soon, basing her prediction on the fact that never in the city's history have Salem residents failed to meet requirements in financial drives.

Meanwhile Red Cross workers are stressing importance of making contributions as soon as possible, a total of $600 being needed to reach the quota. Contributions, they explained, are coming in at a fairly slow rate, and unless they are speeded up, it will be some time before the quota is reached.

Banks Take Contributions
All contributions, no matter how large or how small, are acceptable. Mrs. Woodruff said, and may be left at either of three banks, the Farmers National Citizens Savings or First National. Immediate relief is needed in the drought area, and all cities have been requested to make special efforts to reach their quotas as soon as possible.

No special benefits are planned by the local Red Cross in its fund-raising effort. It is hoped that the goal will be reached by Saturday of this week.

STATE STREET STORE IS SOLD

Reich and Ruggly Business Is Purchased By V. L. Battin

Announcement of the sale of the Reich and Ruggly store, 386 East State st., by N. Y. Reich to V. L. Battin of Salem, was made today by R. M. Atchison, real estate broker.

The transaction, pending for the last ten days, was completed this morning, arrangements being made for Battin to take possession of the business on Monday, February 16.

Reich has been connected with the cigar store and news agency business in Salem for almost 25 years. He entered into partnership with the late Rex W. Ruggly on April 1, 1906, purchasing the interest owned by John Johnson in what was then known as the firm of Ruggly and Johnson.

Ruggly's interest was purchased by Reich shortly before the former's death, the place being continued under the name of Reich and Ruggly.

Battin will operate the business under his own name. He was in the hardware business in Salem for years and later operated the Community Service and Gasoline station on East State st.

Reich said today he had no definite plans for the future.

BISHOP CANNON FACES CHARGES

Hobbles Into Methodist Episcopal Church in Washington; Doors Are Closed to Public

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Bishop Cannon of the Methodist Episcopal church south, today hobbled into the Mount Vernon Methodist church on crutches to face charges. The doors were locked immediately.

Bishop W. N. Ainsworth, who has charge of the proceedings, sent word to reporters by a uniformed policeman, who was standing guard at a side door, that he would see them.

He informed them "this is an ecclesiastical proceeding carried on as a church law prescribes and nothing will be given to the public until it is over. When a conclusion is reached, I will give out the results as well as the names of the men who are conducting the hearings."

He then stepped back into the church. The door was closed and the policeman mounted guard.

Although she never has appeared on the stage or in the movies, Miss Loretta Sayers, young society girl of Larchmont, N. Y., has a long term movie contract with Columbia Pictures. The smile she wears above dazzled the camera and the film magnates.

HIGH SCHOOL'S 40-PIECE BAND PLANS CONCERT

Wednesday Program In Auditorium Planned To Raise Funds

Sixteen specially arranged selections will be played by the Salem High school band in a concert which will be presented at the high school auditorium at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

40-Piece Band
Under the direction of Chester M. Brautigan, an attractive program of musical selections has been arranged for presentation by the 40-piece band. Selections by Seitz, King, Mendelssohn's "War March of the Priests," a medley of southern melodies by Fillmore and "Tannhauser" by Wagner are among leading selections on the program.

Piano selections will be played by Marie Louise Miller and Selma Liebman. A bass solo, "Solo Pomposo," will be played by Dale Lepper.

The student musicians will appear in military-style uniforms, purchased last year. The concert will be given in an effort to raise funds for the band treasury which now shows a deficit of $115.

The complete program was announced today by Brautigan as follows:
"Grandioso," march—Seitz; "The Iron Court, overture—King; "The Peet, Peasant and Light Cavalry," selection—Fillmore; "War March of the Priests," from "Athaliah"—Mendelssohn; "Flanders," march—McNichol; The best-loved southern melodies; medley of plantation songs—Hayes; "Playfellow," march—Fillmore.

Intermission
Piano numbers by Marie Louise Miller and Selma Liebman; "Gloria," march—Losey; "Tannhauser," selection—Wagner; "Solo Pomposo," bass solo (Hayes)—Dale Lepper; "The Cresley March"—Fillmore; "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," characteristic—Jessel; "Our Fighting Men," march—Rocoretto; "Princess of India," overture—King; "The Stars and Stripes Forever," march— Sousa; "Star Spangled Banner."

Reveals Increase In Livestock Loss

LISBON, Feb. 3.—To January report of County Dog Warden C. E. Donahay, filed with the county commissioners, shows six sheep and one sow were killed by dogs last month and one ewe was wounded. The damage to this live stock has been placed at $105 as against a damage record of $80 for January 1930, when four sheep and one calf were killed and one ewe wounded. Donahay defined the dog laws of the state at a meeting of the Fox Hunters' club, held in the Wilson garage at Wellsville Monday night. This club is in possession of a large acreage near Glasgow on the Lisbon-Wellsville road, where hunts are held occasionally.

Act In Rate Tilt

(By Associated Press)
TOLEDO, O., Feb. 3.—The city council took action to settle Toledo's long rate controversy with the Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas company last night by passing legislation providing for a flat rate of 50 cents a thousand cubic feet.

Officials of the gas company recently announced they could not afford to accept the 50 cent rate.

GOVERNMENTAL RELIEF RAPPED BY PRESIDENT

Strikes At Very Root Of Self Rule, Hoover Declares

PUTS CONFIDENCE IN MERCY GROUPS

Will Use Own Efforts If Every Other Means Should Fail

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Hoover today opposed the proposed appropriations for relief as "measures which would strike at the very root of self government."

While the President expressed confidence that the Red Cross, together with local aid, could take care of both the drought and unemployment situations, he said he was willing to pledge himself to ask the aid of every resource of the federal government in the event other means should fail.

President Hoover expressed his view personally to the regular semi-weekly press conference.

President Hoover said the present problem did not present a question so much as to whether people would go hungry or cold but rather a question of the best method of preventing hunger and cold.

His views were given after he and Senator Watson, the Republican leader, had discussed the legislative situation at a White House breakfast.

The President said he had received reports only today that no one is going hungry or need go hungry or cold.

Doesn't Lack Sympathy
Mr. Hoover said he had spent much of his life in fighting human hardship both in this country and abroad and that he did not believe he could be accused of a lack of human sympathy.

He declared he would no more see starvation occurring among the people of this country than would any senator or representative.

One of the major objections advanced by him against the method of aid proposed by some members of congress was that it would strike at the roots of the system of self-help which he said was a major principle of this country.

FORMER HELEN GOULD IS DEAD

Bride Of Fifth Baron Decies Succumbs To Heart Attack

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The former Helen Vivien Gould, American heiress who as the youthful bride of the fifth Baron Decies dazzled English society, died today of a heart attack which developed from jaundice. She was 39 years old.

Besides her husband, who has had a famous career in the army, she left three children, a son and two daughters.

The granddaughter of Jay Gould, whose railroad manipulations made him a money king of the post Civil war period, Lady Decies came to be known in England for the spectacles she sometimes presented society, her penchant for the unexpected, and as a lavishly charming hostess.

She was married in 1911 when she was 19 years old. The ceremony was performed in New York, its splendor and the prominence of the principals giving it wide publicity.

Her name was frequently in the headlines, particularly when on her honeymoon she smoked a cigarette at the railroad station in Brunswick. Ga. Her reception in the British court was a triumph. She appeared before the king and queen in a white satin gown embroidered in diamonds, pearls and crystals and a train rich with silver lilies and ermine. She later became of prominent figure in society.

Lisbon Approves Plumbing Measure

LISBON, Feb. 3.—An ordinance providing for the inspection of plumbing installation in all but public buildings was passed under suspension of rules by the village council here Monday night.

The ordinance stipulates that a permit costing $10 must be taken out by property owners where installation of equipment involves cost of more than $100. Inspections will be in charge of the village waterworks superintendent. Fines ranging from $10 to $100 will be imposed for violations of the ordinance.

Pleads Not Guilty
ATHENS, O., Feb. 3.—A plea of not guilty was entered yesterday by Mrs. Gladys Deer, 21, at a preliminary hearing on a first degree murder charge in the death of her father, John Rife, 69, Buchtel, who was stabbed to death Thursday. She was held without bond.

STORE WRECKED IN YOUNGSTOWN

Proprietor Arrested While Flames Were Still Sweeping From His Place Of Business

(By Associated Press)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 3.—The proprietor of a downtown clothing store was arrested today while flames still were sweeping his place of business following an explosion which investigators said was caused by gasoline. The blast and fire caused damages estimated at $10,000.

The explosion was the third here in a short time to be blamed on incendiaries.

Persons sleeping above the store were thrown from their beds by today's explosion. An aged woman and several other occupants were led to safety by firemen, who seized four bundles of gasoline-soaked rags.

COURT ORDERS SPECIAL GRAND JURY MEETING

East Liverpool Embezzlement Charges To Be Investigated

LISBON, Feb. 3.—Common Pleas Judge W. F. Lones Monday afternoon recalled the January grand jury for a special session Monday, Feb. 23.

More Transcripts Filed

Since the grand jury was recessed early in January 13, transcripts have been filed with Clerk of Courts John A. Noble for investigation of the next session. The majority of the indictments returned by the January grand jury have been disposed of, and only a few remain to be assigned for trial.

The jury will investigate a charge of embezzlement of $13,000 in public funds which was filed against Earl Edwards, former clerk of municipal court in East Liverpool. The fatal shooting of James Hoskins, 38, in a street fight in Wellsville March, 1923, and a number of burglary charges, also will be investigated.

Examiner's Report Ready

Date for the special session was set after Prosecuting Attorney John Banknecht had been advised by State Examiner Ralph Reigler of Canton that the latter would be ready to report during the fore part of February on his findings in a check-up of East Liverpool municipal court records.

Edwards, who pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Municipal Judge Harry Brekaw in East Liverpool, is at liberty under bond of $15,000.

BUSINESS MEN IN BONUS QUIZ

Industrials And Insurance Officials Called To Testify Before House Committee

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Advocates of cash payments on veterans' compensation certificates remained hopeful today they would win some kind of compromise in congress, but Republican leaders went ahead marshalling evidence against the project.

Prominent industrialists and insurance officials were called to put their views before the house ways and means committee. More were to follow during the week with every indication the hearings on the numerous veterans' relief proposals would be protracted.

Chairman Hawley of the ways and means group hoped to have Alfred P. Sloan, president of General Motors, take the stand today as well as W. H. George of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, E. D. Duffield of the Prudential, Clarence W. Wooley of the American Radiator company, and Samuel W. Reynum of the form of Lord and Taylor.

DO-X Departure Again Is Delayed

LAS PALMAS, CANARY ISLANDS, Feb. 3.—The flight of the Dornier flying boat DO-X from Las Palmas to the Cape Verde island was delayed again today by motor trouble.

At 3:30 a. m. it was decided that it would be impossible to reach Ponta Praia, in the Cape Verde islands, during daylight today.

The departure therefore was postponed and set tentatively for Wednesday, between 4 and 5 a. m.

Campbell Set For Speed Dash

Capt. Malcolm Campbell, British speed ace, is shown here with his cousin, Mrs. Edgar Middleton Campbell, who is the only living person who has traveled more than 200 miles an hour in an automobile.

ENGLISHMAN'S RACER TUNED FOR BIG TEST

(By Associated Press)
DAYTONA BEACH, FLA., Feb. 3.—Poor visibility and a strong wind today prevented Capt. Malcolm Campbell, British race car driver, from making an official attempt to lower the world's land speed record of 231 miles an hour.

BY TED GILL
Associated Press Writer
DAYTONA BEACH, FLA., Feb. 3.—With ideal beach conditions and the wind tuned to perfection, Captain Campbell today set out to establish a new world's automobile speed record on the glistening sands of the natural speedway here.

Hits 240-Mile Mark
Highly elated over his machine's performance yesterday, when he attained an unofficial clip of approximately 240 miles an hour, Campbell was confident of setting a new mark noticeably higher than the present record of 231 miles an hour established in 1924 by the late Sir Henry Segrave, also of England.

Campbell calculated his approximate speed from his tachometer, which registers his engine revolutions.

With the arrival here of Odie Porter, official timer for the American Automobile association, orders were issued for the setting up of the electrical clocking device which records a driver's time for his runs to a thousandth of a second. From the elapsed time, his speed in miles per hour is determined.

Will Await Low Tide
Low tide occurs about 2:15 p. m. (Est.) but Campbell arranged to be at the starting post from one to two hours before that time.

Campbell planned to take a four-mile running start. After flashing past the finish wire, he will require approximately four miles to bring his car to a stop.

Then he will change tires, inspect his car and make another run in the opposite direction, which must be completed 30 minutes after the start of the first. One trial must be made with the wind and the other against it. If the average speed of the two runs is higher than 231 miles an hour, he will have established a new world's land speed record.

AWAIT DECISION IN CLARK RULING

Justice Department Officials Disappointed Over Lengthy Consideration By Court

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The decision of Federal Judge Clark of New Jersey, holding the 18th amendment unconstitutional, which has been both praised and derided—apparently is receiving lengthy consideration at the hands of the supreme court.

Two decision days had passed today since the court heard arguments in the case, after an appeal from Judge Clark's decision had been rushed with unprecedented haste by Attorney-General Mitchell. Justice department officials did not conceal their disappointment that the court had not handed down a decision, promptly reversing Judge Clark.

The court is now recessed until Feb. 24, which means that justices will have ample opportunity to consider the constitutional questions involved in the Clark decision.

The court's decision, it is pointed out, may prove historic, not only in reference to the prohibition amendment, but as to future amendments of the federal constitution.

Alan Will Attend Educators' Session

John S. Alan, superintendent of Salem schools, will attend the national convention of American school superintendents in Detroit, Mich., during the week of February 23-28.

Arrangements whereby Alan will attend the session were announced at last night's meeting of the board of education.

HELPLESS CITY ABLAZE; NEARBY TOWNS ARE HIT

At Least 1,000 Injured; Disaster Cuts Off Water Supply

DYNAMITE USED TO CHECK FIRE

Early Reports Of Casualties Expected To Be Exceeded

(By Associated Press)
AUCKLAND, N. Z., Feb. 3.—Earthquake and fire leveled the city of Napier, New Zealand, today, leaving a casualty list reported at 100 dead and 1,000 injured and wrecked four nearby towns causing an undetermined number of fatalities and injuries.

Napier Ablaze, Helpless
Napier was still ablaze and virtually helpless tonight, the quake having cut off its water supply. Its stunned populace stood by, unable to count its dead and without effective means of fighting the fire.

Dynamiting was resorted to in an attempt to check the flames. The first shock came shortly before 11 a. m. shaking a large portion of the coastal region of Hawke's Bay. Province, of which Napier is the capital. Hastings, a town 15 miles from Napier, reported 21 dead and 100 injured.

The towns of Waipawa and Waipukurau also great fires broke out. Early reports of casualties were expected to be exceeded as no media could be made immediately.

The towns of Napier, Waipawa and Waipukurau were completely destroyed. The city of Napier was a mass of ruins. The city of Hastings was also a mass of ruins. The city of Waipawa was also a mass of ruins. The city of Waipukurau was also a mass of ruins.

The British naval sloop Veronica landed a squadron of blue-jackets immediately after the quake. The sloop, in a radio appeal for outside help, said that a great loss of life was feared.

MATRON RESIGNS AT COUNTY JAIL

Mrs. W. J. Barlow Quits Job; Mrs. Elizabeth Sloss Appointed

LISBON, Feb. 3.—The resignation of Mrs. W. J. Barlow as matron of the county jail has been filed with Probate Judge Lodge Riddle, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sloss has been appointed to the vacancy at a salary of $75 monthly. Mrs. Barlow, who is the wife of Sheriff Barlow, had been receiving a salary of $100 monthly.

Prosecuting Attorney John E. Banknecht has informed the county commissioners that it is the opinion of the attorney general's office at Columbus, that the sheriff of a county could contract with his wife to feed the prisoners in the county jail. This proposition was discussed with the Commissioners Monday afternoon. The commissioners have instructed Clerk L. H. Johnson to ascertain the cost of feeding prisoners in other counties in the state having a population as large as Columbiana county's.

Damage Estimate Impossible
The Veronica radioed: "It is impossible at present to estimate the damage at Napier but it is very severe. We have taken charge and are endeavoring to organize the situation, with the liners Tarasanki and Northumberland assisting. Every available man has been landed and refugees are coming aboard the Veronica."

He's Too Slick

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 3.—Back in the old home state and despite all the evils that have hit the whole world, she looks pretty good.

The worst thing that can happen to you in Oklahoma City is to hit an oil well, wor you can't sell the oil.

Appeared before the Oklahoma Legislature today in joint session and injected a little seriousness into what for one month has been a comedy de luxe.

Had a couple of hours of food and conversation with "Alfalfa" Bill Murray, America's most colorful governor.

They will never impeach this baby, he's too slick for 'em. He's got lots of common sense, and if the people want a good government he will give it to 'em.

Sometimes I doubt if they do, but watch old "Alfalfa," he will grow right in that capitol. Yours, Will Rogers (Copyright, 1930, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

PERMANENT VALUE
In Cuyahoga Falls early Monday morning Frank Ridenour died from burns sustained when he made a futile attempt to save two of his children from burning to death. He had picked them up after an explosion caused by gasoline thrown on a blaze but fell unconscious trying to reach the door of the house. Unable to find them he ran outside. The children were found lying on the floor with a pet dog.

Mrs. Ridenour, upstairs with two other children, carried them down the stairs and through the flames to safety. It is believed she will recover, though badly burned.

In Toledo on Sunday, Norman Braddock, 41 years old, risked his life to dive under the ice on the Maumee river in an attempt to rescue his son and a playmate, who had fallen through the ice. He found the body of one of the children and brought it to the surface. It was his friend's playmate. Plunging for his friend's child again he sought safety for his own child. Finally, he gave up in despair.

Just two stories out of many, and stories that might seem insignificant in comparison with battles in the senate, speeches of great men and appropriations of millions of dollars. But back of their value as news lies a restatement of one of the world's most potent forces—parental love.

WINTER—AS USUAL.
There is a report that the groundhog emerged from his hole and had a shadow Monday. It is not known whether he saw it or not, but he popped back in promptly. In accordance with honored custom, therefore, it must be concluded that there will be at least six more weeks of winter weather.

It must be true. Perhaps another sign may be quoted without overloading the field of weather prophecy.

John Jones, who burns approximately one-third of a ton of coal in his furnace every week during cold weather, came out of his front door Monday morning and made a mental note to order four more tons of coal, or enough to last for 12 more weeks. He also remembered that he was to get a new pair of overshoes for junior and was to stop at the tailor's to have three buttons sewed on his overcoat. Which means that there will be winter weather right up to the second week in April—as usual.

What Others Say
ADVERTISING HEALTH
The medical profession has made tremendous progress in the diagnosis and cure of disease. Comparatively little progress has been made in the fundamentally more important field of disease prevention. Simply because it is the habit of people to wait for illness to overtake them, or to come to the emergency stage, before they consult a physician. They have not been educated to the fact that periodic examinations, at least once or twice a year, would prolong their lives, save them a great deal of grief and pain, idleness and expense.

Here, it seems, is not only a privilege, but a duty of medicine—to bring home to the public the value of preventive examination and treatment. Newspapers have persistently urged this fact upon their readers, but so long as the medical associations themselves are virtually silent on so important a matter the full value of the argument is lost. The reporting of statements and addresses meant primarily for the ears of the profession can do little to sway the public mind. The daily publication in newspapers of health articles, while it is valuable, would be vastly more valuable if actively backed and sponsored by the entire medical profession.

There has been some recent liberalization in medicine's attitude toward advertising. It is profitable to be carried farther. No one wants individual physicians to adopt catchy slogans or methods of high-pressure salesmanship. It is the duty of reputable physicians themselves, not individually, perhaps, but as a profession, to combat publicly the old dread of physical examination and clinical advice, the fears and misapprehensions deliberately implanted by propagandist quacks, and the deplorable tendency of people to wait until an illness becomes critical before submitting to examination and treatment.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Adult's Example at Table
There often arises the problem of how to get children to eat certain foods. The grown-ups are familiar with the advantages and benefits of certain foods, but frequently Tommy may not agree with us.

It is definitely believed by some students of the subject that any dislike a child may have for certain foods is due entirely to neglect in training. This is unfortunate, if true, for often children grow up disliking foods which are absolutely essential for their health.

In many instances the cause for this dislike may be attributed to the parent. The child overhears the adult's complaint and the expression of his dislike of certain foods, such as spinach, carrots or milk. Children are quick to imitate, and if the taste of a particular food is not pleasing, they will immediately reject that food. They found their objection on the conversation of their elders. If you dislike some foods, never voice your opinion in the presence of young children.

Children should never be scolded for not eating certain foods. Nor should they be forced to eat foods they do not desire. Forced feedings never develop a desire or taste for food, and certainly do not promote proper digestion.

At the same time you should continue serving these foods. Never remove them from the child's list. If nothing is said, it is probable he will eat them in time.

It takes tact and thought to overcome these dislikes. One wise mother told me the other day that she makes sandwiches, filling them with a mixture of the disliked vegetable mashed up with a larger quantity of a popular vegetable. When the child finally discovers the fact, he has found out that the despised food is really not bad but on the contrary, is actually good.

Occasionally I see a dyspeptic old gentleman, who, organically is well, and possesses no real stomach disorder, yet he won't eat this or that, thinking it is bad for him. Usually he is merely suffering from poor food training in childhood. I pity him.

If the foods served the children differ from those the rest of the family have, it is better to have the children eat before the adults, and preferably in a separate room. There should be only the most pleasant of conversation at any table. There never should be any playing or undue excitement at this time or immediately following the meal.

Answers to Health Queries
1. B. Q.—What would you advise for low mentality?
2.—What would cause puffiness under the eyes?
3.—What can be done for a continual tired feeling?

A.—The treatment would depend upon the cause of the trouble. Have a talk with the doctor who is familiar with the patient's condition. He will advise you.

2.—This symptom may be indicative of a heart or kidney disturbance or it may be due to possible distillation. In this case also examination will determine the necessary treatment.

3.—Low blood pressure anemia, auto-intoxication or a generally run-down condition may be at the source of the trouble. Have an examination and follow your doctor's advice regarding treatment.

NEW YORK Day by Day

by O.O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Greenwich Village is almost completely shorn of its Bohemianism these days. What there is left is faked for the tourist trade. New apartment buildings with their uptown prices have forced out the shiftless and romantic dreamers.

The smocked and sandaled veterans have settled in the various "artistic colonies" springing up in suburbs. Village "type" today are mostly commercial conscious schemers with press agents. They have an eye for a week at the Palace instead of the deathless canvas.

In its halcyon past every tumble-down brick and frame building rivaled its quota of unconventional who mocked the marriage vow. Ladies in Grecian robes and mandeaus sat cross legged on the floor in the candle light ballyhooing a new ism. Pseudo intellectuals with long hair led lost causes.

Life was dangerously experimental. Each attic was an open house to which drifted the gleaners, hoping for a free round of gin. Now and then an all-night party would end in tragedy as when the gifted Hans Stengel left his guests suddenly to hang himself in a closet one dawn.

It is remarkable that many came out of the Village unscathed. A few talented, of course, were seized by its squalid mark, but it is surprising how many were able in time to see the utter futility of such an easy going life and break away.

Novelists of distinction had their brief fling in the shadows of Washington Arch—Sinclair Lewis, Theodore Dreiser, Hendrik Van Loon, Willard Huntington Wright, Harris Merton Lyon, and O. Henry. Also such artists as Robert Henri, Bob Chandler, Rose O'Neil and others.

Perhaps there are a half dozen blocks where the ancient Village peeps through but generally speaking when the go-getter moved in the dreamer moved out. The alley theater, the Cubistic cellar and Futuristic garret are, too, a fading memory.

Success in capsule: Bolton Malloy, editor of Life, was a young copy writer in an advertising agency when Life was peeling an eye for a new editor. He wrote a piece of advertising copy that struck the publisher's eye—and Voila!

Personal contact is not always necessary in landing the New York Job. Irvin Cobb wrote a despairing letter to a Park Row editor from a 57th St. boarding house, intending to return next day to Paducah a failure. James Gordon Bennett made a reporter managing editor of the Herald because of a testy note sent him to Paris.

McKEESPORT, PA.—Miss Margaret Claire, McKeesport, has not missed a Sunday school session for the past 25 years. A brother, William G. Drury, will have rounded out 23 years of consecutive attendance in May.

MOUNT WILL GET ART COLLECTION

Mrs. Ella Peasley And Carnegie Corporation Cooperate

ALLIANCE, Feb. 3.—Mount Union College will receive the Carnegie Fine Arts collection through the joint auspices of the Carnegie Corporation and Mrs. Ella Peasley of the class of 1897, of Long Beach, Calif., college officials announced here today.

Assembled by Artists
The art collection, which is valued at $5,000 has been assembled by a committee of leading artists, art critics and art teachers, which sent skilled agents into the great art centers to collect color prints, facsimiles, photographs, and collotypes. It covers all of the fine arts and is designed to provide educational institutions equipment suitable for the teaching of all courses in the history and appreciation of fine arts from its earliest beginning to the present day.

This collection will be known as the "Ella Wilcox Peasley Fine Arts Collection." The Corporation that has made a study of this subject and collected the materials offered Mount Union College $2,500 toward the purchase of the set provided some alumnus or friend of the college would give an equal amount. Mrs. Peasley gave $3,500 on the anniversary plan, the additional $1,000 being designated for purchase of additional art. Other gifts are being made to add art materials and works of art to the collection.

1800 Reproductions
More than 1800 reproductions of the greatest works of architecture, sculpture and paintings, many of which are in color, and nearly 200 books on art are included in the collection. The prints are mounted on serviceable boards ranging in size from 11x14 to 22x28 inches. This material, it is stated, will be of great value, not only to Dr. C. A. Cribbs, Professor of History and Art, but to other departments such as the Greek in illustrating the earliest of art creations, the Latin, English and other departments. Art supervisors in the schools and others in Alliance will find it a valuable source of material.

Besides the reproductions, there is a set of 50 original prints, showing different processes of print-making and the work of different periods and notable men.

The Stars Say
For Wednesday, Feb. 4
Although the planetary conditions for this day bespeak some lively and enterprising activities, with a degree of progress and profit yet there are signs indicating fraud, duplicity and misrepresentation, which must be sagaciously dealt with. All writings should be negotiated with precaution and new projects should be launched with well-forethought plans and safeguards.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of rather mixed conditions. While affairs may be lively and there may be an urge to initiate and new undertakings, attended by a modicum of success and encouragement yet there are perils through deception, fraud and betrayal, especially through writings. With precaution and wise judgment prosperity may be achieved. A child born on this day may be ambitious, resourceful and enterprising yet it may incline to ways of shrewdness and strategem to attain its ends.

Make system alkaline to ... Stop Colds QUICK!
Get Rid of Colds Before They Weaken You, Make You Liable to More Serious Troubles.

Nowadays it's important to stop your cold quick before it weakens your resistance to more serious trouble.

Any of the older treatments will bring relief—after a time. But thousands say this new way is the quickest of any.

Begin when you feel a cold coming. Take a tablespoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia in a glass of water, morning, noon, and night, the first day. Do same the second day. Then only at night. Colds reduce the alkaline balance of your system. That makes you feel achy, feverish, weak. Phillips Milk of Magnesia relieves this, and restores the alkaline balance.

Doctors prescribe Phillips Milk of Magnesia; hospitals use it. Millions know how it relieves sour stomachs, gas, indigestion, constipation and other symptoms of too much acid. Get the genuine.

MILD WEATHER PROMPTS DROP IN EGG PRICES

Quotations At Lowest Ebb In Many Years, Says Ohio Bureau

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Feb. 3.—Egg prices are at the lowest ebb for many years, with country prices at fifteen cents a dozen in some places, says a bulletin issued here today by the Ohio Farm Bureau corporation. The egg prices have declined to this depth because the mild weather has resulted in heavy production and because of a number of other influences.

Under Average

The better grades of farm run eggs in New York City are averaging around 22 1-2 cents a dozen. This is about 30 cents under the January average for the past five years.

The very heavy supply of eggs during the year 1930 was more than consumers could take, so that the year's holdings have not been cleaned up. In a frantic effort to unload, prices for storage eggs were given a drastic reduction at the end of last year and this reduction has, in a way, steadied the market for the remainder of the winter months. January eggs are not ordinarily placed in storage and since present production is too heavy for the day-to-day consuming demand, farmers have a situation where supplies are in excess of demands. When this happens with a perishable product, holders always reduce prices in the hope of reducing their stocks.

Volume Is Larger

The volume of eggs produced is undoubtedly large. The mild weather of the past few weeks has made this possible. A period of cold weather might result in smaller supplies. Since there is no storage demand at this time, egg prices for the next 60 days will be almost entirely a matter of supplies. Should supplies decline, eggs will increase in price. Should the present volume continue, there is little hope for much improvement until some storage demand arises.

The disaster among holders of storage eggs for the season just passing has led to a very conservative attitude in storing eggs. Undoubtedly prices will be very low during the first part of the storing season. Should supplies be smaller than anticipated during March, there might be the result of an increase in egg prices for April and early summer, but the depressed state of mind among egg people is certain to have a very baneful influence on prices.

Buy at Low Prices

Consumers have formed a habit of buying at low prices, and any increase in egg prices is certain to meet with resistance from the buying public. The fact that butter is low and other meats are lower than usual has a certain degree of influence on egg prices.

Altogether, the bulletin concludes, some very decided changes in the statistical situation will be necessary before there will be any important increase in egg prices. Eggs are entirely too low at this time, so that farmers probably will see an increase from the present low levels. It would not be unreasonable to hope, the bulletin says, for an increase as much as ten cents a dozen this spring, but taking the situation as a whole, farmers can hardly expect better than a rather low egg market.

FARM BUREAUS WIN HONORS AT CAPITAL MEET

Achievements Of Columbiana County Are Recognized

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Feb. 3.—One hundred and twelve township and community farm bureaus of Ohio were honored for outstanding achievements in farm bureau activities during 1930 at the presentation luncheon held here today as a part of the annual meeting of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

In addition trophies were presented to county and township organizations for special attainments in membership work.

79 Units Honored

Awards were made to 79 township and community units for successfully meeting farm bureau standard community attainments in 1930, and second year recognition was given 19 others who have met the requirements for two successive years. In addition, honorable mention was granted to 14 more which entered the project.

Standard requirements include at least six meetings a year, with participation of members and accurate records; a definite organization with officers and committees to carry out their duties; a definite program for membership work; and activities in some phase of at least five of the following projects: Cooperative buying or marketing, taxation, legislation and public affairs, economic production, home improvement, electrification, education, recreation and social life, roads, health and safety.

Recognized Counties

The recognized counties include: Allen, Ashland, Auglaize, Belmont, Clark, Columbiana, Cuyahoga, Delaware, Darke, Erie, Franklin, Greene, Hardin, Harrison, Highland, Huron, Logan, Lorain, Mahoning, Marion, Medina, Mercer, Miami, Morrow, Paulding, Portage, Richland, Seneca, Shelby, Stark, Summit, Union, Wayne and Wyandot.

Prizes were awarded four individuals for membership work. These were Carl Funk, Wayne county, first; Walter Sollars, Fayette county, second; E. L. Watson, Ashtabula county, third, and E. L. Watson, Miami county, fourth.

Daugherty Files Plea Of Not Guilty

BUSINESS SHOWS SLIGHT GAIN IN MONTH'S REPORT

December Sees Increase, Federal Reserve Bank Figures Show

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Feb. 3.—Employment and business in general has shown a turn for the better in the fourth federal reserve district, the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank finds in its monthly business survey.

The bank reported a one per cent increase in employment in Ohio during December, a month which in the previous five years had always shown a decline of one per cent. The figure was based on information from 760 manufacturing concerns. They predicted "some further" improvements when the January figures are compiled.

Upturn in Fourth Area

Since the bottom of the present cycle was reached in November, business in general despite numerous exceptions, has shown a slow, but steady upturn in Ohio, Eastern Kentucky, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia, the fourth reserve area.

The survey found that the steel industry began improvement in January and during the first three weeks of that month recovered more than all of the December loss. Operations the third week of January were 47 per cent of capacity, compared with 25 percent in the final week of January.

Automobile production expanded in December and continued to improve last month.

Sales But Slightly Lower

The report said that contrary to the belief that the public is not buying at department stores, sales for 1930 were only 10 per cent below 1929, and this partly because of lower prices.

The gloomy part of the survey came in agriculture.

Ohio farm crop values dropped 30 per cent in 1930 from 1929, about the same average as for the country as a whole. Pennsylvania crops fell off only 9.5 per cent, but Kentucky showed a decline of 44 and West Virginia 42 per cent.

Hearings On New Auto Law Continue

(By Associated Press.) COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 3.—The insurance committee of the house continued its hearing today on the safety responsibility law which would require automobile drivers involved in accidents for which they cannot pay to post security for future accidents under the penalty of having their licenses revoked.

C. C. James, secretary and Wilbur E. Bency a member of the legal committee of the Ohio State Automobile association explained the provisions of the bill to the committee last night. Other witnesses are to be heard today.

The measure provides that any auto driver, found guilty of a law violation, or one against whom a judgment of $100 or more has been rendered, must produce an insurance policy or post other security with the state commission of motor vehicles. Only those unable to pay for the accidents for which they are responsible would be affected.

Bency told the committee that the death rate in states which have this legislation has been materially reduced.

COURT NEWS

Common Pleas Entries Joseph Warren, defendant, in a divorce action filed against him by his wife, Harriet Warren, July 7, last had been adjudged by Judge J. C. Ogelsby of Carroll county, who is presiding in No. 2 court room, to be in contempt of court for non payment of temporary alimony of $6 weekly. Warren has been sentenced to serve 10 days in the county jail, but the court suspended the sentence until today.

The petition and cross petition have been dismissed in the alimony action filed May 31, last, by Alma C. Dell against Mike Dell, with the costs being paid and no further record appearing.

In the divorce action filed by Nellie V. Wyland against her husband, Claude D. Wyland, the court has granted the plaintiff leave to file a supplemental petition at once.

Sustaining the grounds of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty, the court has granted a divorce decree to Margaret Hoenig against her husband H. Edward Hoenig. She has been restored to her maiden name that of Margaret Leyda.

CLEVER CARD CLUB

Meeting Monday evening, the Clever Card club members were guests of Mrs. Jack Hicks at her home, North Rose avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lockney and Paul Stratton of New Kensington, Pa., were guests over the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stratton, Goshen road. Mrs. Stratton celebrated her birthday on Sunday.

Jack Sheehan, Ohio avenue, left for Dayton university, where he is enrolled in preparatory school work.

COURT PONDS PLEA FOR MERCY

Judge William C. Doran Considers Future Of Daisy De Boe

(By United Press.) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Daisy De Boe's plea for mercy was under consideration today by Judge William C. Doran who had denied her a new trial on charges that she stole money from Clara Bow, her employer.

Arguments on her application for probation will be heard next Tuesday, but it was indicated it would require probation officers at least two weeks longer than that to complete their report.

Defense Atty William Bernie late yesterday based his plea for a new trial on charges that the verdict finding Miss De Boe guilty of grand theft was obtained "by lot and chance," contending the jury had found her guilty on one charge and not guilty on 34 as a compromise after being deadlocked for many hours.

Bernie also contended that letters to Clara Bow from Harry Richman, Rex Bell and Dr. Earl Pierson should not have been introduced at the trial because theft of the letters had not been charged in the indictment.

Judge Doran, in denying the plea, noted that even if there were technical errors in the record, "they were not of a sort to prejudice any of the defendant's constitutional rights."

He added that he considered the evidence of Miss DeBoe's guilt as "overwhelming."

Interest to pay on such currency. Prosperity undoubtedly would feel better. Soldiers would have their money and the government certainly is good for three and a half billions or ten times that. It could cut down the amount of currency outstanding when convenient.

With many people looking for work, and food, the government worrying about money to pay the soldiers, there is a glut of money in Wall street. About 500 millions will be paid out in the next few days, more than four hundred millions will be looking for reinvestment, and yesterday $100,000,000 could not be lent, even at one and a half per cent. No borrowers.

So-called financiers really know as little about money as sailors know about the wind, which "blows" where it lists.

Brussels has solved mysterious deaths that followed a heavy fog in the Meuse valley last December. Lungs of the dead were eaten out by breathing a sulphurous anhydride. Sulphurous fumes, from a chemical factory, combined with the fog to form an acid that destroyed the lung cells.

It is some comfort to know that the cause of death is established, and can be controlled.

At Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, Captain Chieft, commander of a British coast runner, killed by United States coast guards, was buried yesterday.

Rev. Major Ryder, British, officiating at the funeral, said the captain's death was "nothing more or less than murder on the high seas, one of the inevitable tragedies that follow the hypocrisy of prohibition." The reverend gentleman declared that the captain was only "supplying commodities demanded by the people of the United States."

An American captain might try to run through the British customs lines to supply commodities, untaxed, demanded by the people of Britain. But if he did, he would be shot.

SALEM LICENSE PLATE RECEIPTS REACH $7,620.65

Sum Represents Share To City For Street Maintenance

A fund of $7,620.65 will be credited to the City of Salem as a result of sale of automobile license plates so far for the year 1931.

A total of 2,010 tags were sold in this city. Funds derived from the sale of license plates are appropriated by the city for use in municipal street improvements, resurfacing and maintenance projects but cannot be used for new work.

E. Liverpool Tops List
East Liverpool headed the list of county cities in amounts obtained from auto plate sales, getting $11,668.30 for 3,119 plates. The decline in demand for the new tags was anticipated by district registrars.

Plates sold to-date total 14,706 against 15,709 last year. Receipts for January were $103,467.70 as against $113,068.73 a year ago.

Corporations have been credited with $33,698.03 and the county road and bridge repair fund with $18,735.83. The state will receive $51,733.84.

How Fund Is Divided
Different municipal corporations have been credited with the following:

East Liverpool $11,668.30 for the sale of 3,119 plates; Wellsville $3,650.65 for 870 plates; East Palestine $3,252.38 for 923 plates; Salem $7,620.65 for 2,010 plates; Leontonia $1,163.65 for 338 plates; Lisbon $2,148.60 for 568 plates; Columbiana $2,502.30 for 592 plates; Salineville $1,261.85 for 367 plates; Rogers $215.30 for 60 plates; Hancockville $203.60 for 62 plates; New Waterford $383.10 for 104 plates; Washingtonville $227.65 for 78 plates.

During January, 1930, the state received from this county $56,331.73 and the different municipal corporations $36,989.72. The County road and bridge repair fund received $19,085.82.

Food Poisoning Deaths Reach 12

GRAFTON, N. D., Feb. 3.—Four deaths yesterday brought to 12 the number of persons killed by food poisoning after attending a party given by Edward Hein, near here, Thursday. No more fatalities were anticipated. Of the five other guests one ate sparingly of the salad and was not made ill, another was barely affected and three others recovered after attacks of vomiting.

Health officials blamed a salad of home-preserved peas, lettuce, cheese and ripe olives, but planned a thorough analysis.

Robber Identified

LORAIN, Feb. 3.—The safe robber who was shot and killed Sunday by Police Lieut. William A. Murphy was identified as Eugene Shamanski, 38, of Cleveland.

Identity was established by a man who was taken in custody by Lorain authorities when he appeared at the county morgue in company with a Cleveland undertaker and two women. The women fled when police approached.

Navy Blast Fatal

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 3.—One man was badly burned and several others were less seriously injured today when an explosion occurred on one of the largest submarines in the British navy during manoeuvres near the Edinburgh lightship in the Thames Estuary.

An admiralty official said the explosion was believed to have been of minor character.

VOICE OF POPE TO GO ON AIR

His Holiness to Broadcast Speech Feb. 12 at Inauguration of Vatican Radio Station

(By United Press.) VATICAN CITY, Feb. 3.—The voice of Pope Pius IX will be heard throughout the world when his holiness broadcasts a speech at the inauguration of the new Vatican radio station Feb. 12, the ninth anniversary of his coronation.

The entire ceremony at the station, which will be presented to the Holy See by Senator Guglielmo Marconi, wireless pioneer, will go on the air.

Marconi already has made tests establishing contact with stations in England and the United States. Further tests were to be held today between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. E. S. T. on a wave length of 19.84 meters, and between 1 p. m. and 3 p. m. on a wave length of 50.26 meters.

The Vatican station's call name is HV1. It is available for both telegraphy and telephony.

Inauguration of the Vatican station will bring the head of the Catholic church into direct communication with millions of Catholics in all parts of the world. It will mark another innovation sanctioned by the pope in the modernization of Vatican City.

Aids Appointed By I. S. Guthery

(By United Press.) COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 3.—I. S. Guthery, new state director of agriculture, has announced the following appointments:

Mrs. Lucille Brick, Columbus, confidential secretary; Dr. George Pierce, Marion, chief of the division of animal industry; E. E. Ellenwood, Cralton, chief of the division of plant industry; Gerald J. McCurry, brother of Marie McCurry, secretary of the state Democratic committee, chief of the bureau of inland lakes and parks.

Appointment of E. V. Leas, Delaware automobile dealer, as chief of the department of feeds and fertilizers, and of Q. D. Leach, Columbus, as chief of the foods and dairies division, had been previously announced.

Hangars Damaged In $106,000 Fire

(By International News Service.) ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Damage of $100,000 or more was estimated today as the toll of a fire which swept three hangars here. Six planes were destroyed and three badly damaged.

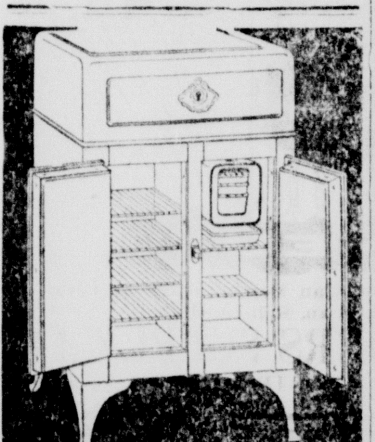

A night watchman reported the visit to the field of a taxicab with a mysterious stranger at the time the fire broke out. An investigation was launched today to determine the cause of the fire.

FARMER RELIEF PLEA REVIVED

Shoves Drought, Unemployment Into Wings On Assembly Stage

(By International News Service.) COLUMBUS, Feb. 3.—Farm relief bounced across the legislative stage with old-time jauntiness and showmanship today, shoving drought relief and unemployment relief temporarily into the wings.

A bill empowering county commissioners to return road tax money to farm owners threatened with bankruptcy, by excessive assessments went to the senate for consideration when the general assembly returned to work.

It joined a hopperful of other measures designed to relieve something or somebody—hungry and ragged school children, hard-up counties, long "broke" municipalities, the poor and needy, and the Ohio jobless.

The return of the farm relief subject, brought with it Gov. White's approval of a plan to provide $50,000 for the purchase of shoes and clothing for school children in drought-stricken southern Ohio.

Senator J. G. Lowery (R) of New Concord will put the plan before the legislature late this afternoon in the form of a bill that has needed only the governor's approval for more than two weeks.

Demand by Senator Roy J. Gillet (R) of Wellston, that the governor appoint a legislative committee on relief will fight the Lowery bill for attention late today with Democrats probably arguing that Mr. White's sanction of the $50,000 expenditure makes the appointment of such a committee necessary.

Killer Sentenced

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 3.—Pasquale Carchia, 31, was sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday after he pleaded guilty to killing Mrs. Carrie Yannetto, 27.

He also admitted killing the woman's estranged husband when the two men called at the woman's home at the same time last October 31. He claimed the husband had first attacked him.

CALIPHATE END IS SOUNDED AS 38 ARE HANGED

Bodies Of Turkish Moslem Reactionaries Swing From Gibbets

(By Associated Press) MENEMEN, TURKEY, Feb. 3.—The bodies of 38 Turkish Moslem reactionaries swung from gibbets in the cold Balkan wind today in a stern warning from the republic that the days of the caliphate have passed forever.

Singly and in some cases by groups the condemned men, convicted of leading an abortive revolutionary movement here Dec. 23, were led at dawn from their cells to the gallows where Gypsy hangmen swung them aloft.

Few Witnesses
Because of the martial law which has been in effect since the revolt, citizens were kept in their homes until 8 a. m. and there were almost no witnesses to the executions beyond a few officials. An occasional scream could be heard from women peeping from behind shuttered windows, however, and with the advance of day, shuddering crowds passed the gruesome scene.

Perhaps the only cheerful place in Menemen today was the prison where seven persons rejoiced because their sentences were commuted at the last moment from death to 24 years imprisonment. These were all over 65 or under 20 years of age.

In cases where it is possible the gibbets were erected on the spots where the condemned men harangued the Menemen populace two days before the Christian Christmas and pleaded with them to arise in behalf of Islam, destroy the western innovations of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, replace the dethroned sultan and restore the caliphate of Allah's golden age.

Army Officer Beheaded
A young Turkish army officer, seeing what was happening, rushed to give the alarm. He was caught by the Reactionaries and beheaded. Troops and police put down the movement and hundreds of arrests followed.

Besides those condemned to die in the ensuing trials 41 Derivishes, priests and their acolytes must serve sentences of three to 24 years hard labor for clandestine religious practices and failure to notify the government of the machinations of Sheik Essad, the leader of the movement.

The Menemen prisons are crammed now with 300 suspects awaiting trial by military courts on the same charges. Among these are Derivishes suspected of demoralizing Turkish girls, many of whom have been found throughout Smyrna province tattooed with mystic Derivish emblems and mottoes such as "though art my goddess."

Death Chants Gallows
Sheik Essad, aged 96 and known as the rascal of Turkey because of his unusual power with women, was one of those condemned to be hanged, but he cheated the gallows with a natural death in his cell last week. His son, the old Priest Ali, aged 64, was one of those hanged today, however—the oldest of the group of doomed men and their leader after the death of his father.

On the breast of each of the hanged men after execution of the court's sentence there was placed a placard, on which were the words in Latin characters: "Thus end traitors to Turkey."

Three Midshipmen Forced To Resign

(By United Press) ANNAPOLIS, MD., Feb. 3.—As the result of what has been described as a "drunken brawl" in the dormitory at Bancroft Hall three midshipmen have been forced to resign from the United States naval academy.

Academy officials withheld the names of the midshipmen, but it was learned two of them were to have graduated in June while the other was a second classman. It was understood one of them is from Idaho, another from Indiana and the third from Montana. The three left the academy yesterday.

Officials said a fight between two of the boys in the corridor of Bancroft Hall after "taps" attracted the attention of a guard who reported the incident to the officer of the day. Some difficulty was encountered in quieting the three and getting them to their rooms.

Detectives Seek Counterfeit Ring

(By United Press) AKRON, Feb. 3.—Detectives today believed they had uncovered a huge counterfeit money ring, with headquarters in Detroit, with the arrest of Andy J. Baker, 44, Akron.

When arrested Baker had eight counterfeit quarters in his possession. A search of the man's room revealed 12 alleged counterfeit half dollars and a quantity of lead, aluminum and other metals used in their manufacture.

Baker told the detectives the coins had been purchased from Detroit headquarters of the ring at 50 cents on the dollar. He denied he made any of the money himself.

Several South Akron merchants later identified Baker as the man who has passed bogus quarters on them during the last few weeks.

BILLY PETROLLE KAYO VICTIM IN BOUT WITH TUT

Minneapolis Battler In Fistic Spotlight As Result of Win

(By Associated Press)
ST. PAUL, Feb. 3.—A saved-off, barrel-chested young man from Minneapolis, named Henry Tuttle, fighting under the name of King Tut, finds himself in a spot today to cause Tony Canzoneri, lightweight champion of the world, a lot of worry.

Tut jumped into the commanding position as a ranking challenger for the lightweight championship last night by scoring a startling upset victory over the battle-scarred Billy Petrolle in exactly 24 seconds.

He knocked out the famed "Far-go Express" before he could get out of his own corner and to the amazement of a record-smashing capacity crowd of 10,249 spectators.

Seeks Title Bout
The King intends to force Canzoneri into a title match.

Petrolle had been in line for the match as the result of a victory over Canzoneri before he became lightweight champion, and also his surprise triumph over Jimmy McLarnin.

The knockout was the first for Petrolle although he had twice previously fallen victim to technical knockouts.

As the bell clang started the fight, Tut charged out of his corner, rushed across the ring and caught Petrolle before he could advance a step. Swinging a right hand punch that started from his hips, he caught the bewildered Petrolle on the rim of the chin.

That blow dazed him and he desperately attempted to clinch, but the bull-like Tut instantly wrestled him off and then cracked him on the jaw with a barrage of rights and lefts.

Petrolle was counted out. He instinctively attempted to get up at the count of nine, but his benumbed muscles refused to respond and he sank back, completely out. He did not land a single punch.

Meet Last Night
The decision to continue the circuit, hard hit last year by a decline in attendance and the withdrawals of Springfield and Richmond, Ind., was reached at a meeting of officials here yesterday.

Akron, O., and Muncie, Ind., were considered the most likely cities to be added, although Portsmouth, O., also has been mentioned. The membership at present consists of Dayton and Canton, O., Erie, Pa., and Fort Wayne, Ind.

E. C. Jacobs, president of the league, announced he would protest to Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis against the transfer of the Springfield club to Bloomington, Ill., in the Three-Eye league.

Charges Misrepresentation
He charged the Springfield withdrawal was contrary to the league constitution and was based on a misrepresentation of facts. He also asserted the Three-Eye was attempting to disrupt the Central league "through attempts to influence our clubs to give up their franchises."

Joe Dunn took the Springfield club to Bloomington and Springfield business men recently refused to support attempts at reorganization.

Frederick W. Howell, Dayton attorney, formally took over control of the Dayton club, which had been operated by the Louisville American Association club as a farm.

Decision Made At Meeting Held In Cleveland; To Seek New Teams
CLEVELAND, Feb. 3.—Unless two more franchises can be found before the February 15 deadline, the Central league will go along with its present membership of four cities.

OPPOSE MOUNT ON THURSDAY

WOOSTER, Feb. 3.—The Wooster college basketball team, coached by E. M. "Mose" Hole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hole, of Salem, plays Mt. Union cagers Thursday evening at Alliance.

Lisbon Graduate
Coach Hole was graduated from Lisbon High where he starred in basketball before entering Wooster College. He played varsity basketball for three years and was captain of the team in his senior year. Hole's parents moved to Salem several years ago.

Both Wooster and Mount are undefeated in Ohio conference circles so far this season. Thursday's game is regarded as the leading basketball attraction in the state for this week.

So far this season Wooster has scored seven Ohio conference victories, two over both Ashland and Kent and one each from Baldwin Wallace, Kenyon and Case.

Methodists, Cadets Return To Lead In City Class B Leagues

Methodist church and Lutheran Cadets basketball teams again advanced to the front in Salem Class B basketball through victories registered in league games played at the Memorial building gym Monday night.

The Methodists returned to lead the American league by trimming the Lease Drugs, 32-11, in a one-sided fracas while the Cadets victimized the Bloomberg Clothiers, 27-20. The Cadets and the Bloomberg team had previously been tied for first place in the National league.

The Althouse Studebakers continued directly behind the Methodists, taking their sixth victory of the season by trimming the Business College team, 44-21.

MOVIES

"QUEEN HIGH" At The Grand

Two of Broadway's favorite legitimate stage funsters head the support in Paramount's filmization of Schwab and Mandel's hilarious musical comedy "Queen High" which is now playing at the Grand theater.

They are Charlie Ruggles and Frank Morgan, and what they do to your funnybone in this rollicking farce is amazing.

According to the story they are business partners in a garter producing enterprise. They can't seem to support each other's views, however, and their lawyer, to settle their differences, proposes that to deal them each a poker hand to decide which will become the butler of the other. Ruggles loses and becomes the butler in the Morgan household. The ensuing situations and dialog are packed with uproarious laughs.

Stanley Smith and Ginger Rogers have the juvenile leads.

"THE MAN WHO CAME BACK" At The State

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, the screen's most popular sweethearts, are reunited in Raoul Walsh's production of "The Man Who Came Back" the feature at the State theater.

"The Man Who Came Back," a most powerful romantic drama presents Miss Gaynor and Farrell in the greatest roles of their co-starring careers.

Farrell, as the never-do-well son of New York's king of finance, falls from grace. Improperly trained to face the world, he sinks, step by step, until he finally reaches the lowest dive in Shanghai.

There, drawn by natural forces, he is attracted to a girl one rung above himself in degradation. Together, hand in hand, impelled by their new found faith, their courage is reborn in misery. Clinging to each other, they climb to a seventh heaven through love.

The girl, of course, is played by Miss Gaynor, and she and Farrell give an interpretation of these dramatic roles that is excellent. Kenneth MacKenna and William Forbes are also in the cast.

Deputy Sheriffs War On Moonshine

(By Associated Press)

PORTSMOUTH, O., Feb. 3.—Deputy sheriffs will invade the wooded hills of Green township to stamp out the reign of lawlessness which the Scioto county grand jury has blamed for four killings and the wounding of 25 others during raids of recent years.

Regarding reports that moonshiners had threatened to fire on the sheriffs, Sheriff Maurice Caldwell ordered his deputies to clean up the township, in the eastern section of the county.

The grand jury has charged that witnesses have been intimidated by a moonshine gang, making it difficult to obtain enough evidence to warrant indictments.

Says Three Years of Stomach Ailments Were Cured by Owa-Ton-Na

"This Fine Old Indian Remedy is Wonderful," Says
Mrs. Brooks

"For three years it almost seems I didn't know what it was to spend the day without misery," says Mrs. J. Brooks, 1612 Pennsylvania avenue, Steubenville, Ohio. "Day after day would find me suffering from indigestion and stomach disorders. In this state I finally tried Owa-Ton-Na because I had heard such wonderful stories about the results many of my friends had from this fine old Indian remedy, and wondered if it would help me."

"Well at first I couldn't see any great change and I said to myself, 'It's the same old story'—but after a few days things began to happen. My bowels began to function normally, my system eliminated a lot of poisons that I never knew existed and the pep started to show itself throughout my body. My appetite improved and food tasted fine. I began to gain strength and look like myself again."

"The stomach pains disappeared and even food which had caused me a great deal of trouble didn't seem to bother me. I sleep better now, have no aches or pains, nervousness is gone. Backache, headaches and dizzy spells have left. I certainly

JANUARY SNOW BELOW NORMAL; WATER NEEDED

Situation In Columbiana County Serious, Says Copeland

MILLPORT, Feb. 3.—The water situation in Columbiana county is serious, it was declared today by L. H. Copeland, cooperative observer in this county for the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Snowfall during January was below normal, and the drought of 1930 carried over into all of January, making a total of 235 days of drought with no relief in sight.

Good Weather in January
"January had 31 days of pleasant winter weather," Copeland said. "The temperature was 16 degrees above normal, and there were no extreme cold spells or storm days. Sunshine was above normal for the month of January."

The dirt roads were in good condition during the greater part of the month. Snowfall was below normal. In fact, Columbiana county has had little snowfall since 1918. Precipitation for the last month was 1.41 inches below normal.

No Zero Temperature

There was no zero temperature during January, which is something unusual, and only once so far this winter has the temperature registered below zero, and that was Nov. 21, when the record was three below. The chart shows the rain record is 12 inches below normal since June 10 last.

Total snow fall for January in this county was 4.2 inches, and while the usual January thaw occurred, "there was nothing to thaw," Copeland declared.

DAMASCUS

The services at the Methodist church were held in the morning. Rev. C. F. Rothel, pastor, used for his subject, "Let us Have Peace With God," taken from Roman 5-1. The choir sang a special selection. There will be no service at the Methodist church, Rev. Rothel will assist Rev. W. H. Wales in revival meetings at Lansing, O. this week and next. Rev. C. A. Powell of Belmont will preach at Bunker Hill next Sunday morning for Rev. Rothel.

A general discussion on the plans of the coming month was held at the Young people's meeting. Next Sunday there will be a debate.

Aid Society To Meet

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. H. Shipman.

Evangelistic services are in progress at the Friends church and will continue every evening except Saturday, this week and next with Rev. Wade Patrick of Alliance in charge. C. L. Cosand sang a solo. In the evening Rev. Patrick gave an evangelistic sermon. Mrs. Robert Wilt sang a solo.

The Christian endeavor meeting was led by Miss Margaret Hobson, the subject being, "The Christian Endeavor Society in the Programme of the Church."

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hobson and family were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wollam of Alliance.

Visits With Parents
Miss Helen Phillips of Cleveland spent the week-end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Phillips. Miss Carabel Israel is ill.

Mrs. George Franklin and children of Mansfield visited Mr. and Mrs. M. Brennan recently.
Mrs. Lauretta King Stanley of Cleveland, mother of Wade Stanley of Damascus, left Monday for San Antonio, Texas, where she will make her home. Her daughter, Mildred, will remain in Cleveland.

Mrs. Wade Stanley entertained nine boys and girls Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Betty's twelfth birthday. In the games prizes were won by Eleanor Stanley, Olive Spencer, Dorothy Israel and Rex Ladd. Mrs. Stanley, assisted by Betty, served lunch.

Mission Band Meets

The Boy's Mission band met with Ramon Stanley Saturday afternoon.

Amazing Relief From Indigestion

Can be obtained in from two to five minutes by taking a little "Bisurated" Magnesia immediately after eating or whenever pain is felt. Thousands who have tried it say there is nothing like "Bisurated" Magnesia for indigestion, gastritis, acidity or dyspepsia. This is because it neutralizes the dangerous excess stomach acid, sweetens the sour fermenting food and soothes and protects the sore inflamed stomach lining—thus quickly stopping gas, burning feeling and pain, and giving nature a chance to restore painless, normal digestion. Get a test package—either powder or handy tablets—from the nearest reliable drug store, take as directed, and forget you ever had indigestion. Adv.

KEEP OUT OF YOUR CELLAR ... HEAT WITH GAS

SPECIAL LIBERAL TERMS

Low Down Payment. No further payments till April.
24 months for the balance. You pay only $1 monthly in December, January and February.

Ask for free estimate and liberal allowances. No obligation.

INTO bed and up in the morning without a heating worry! You can do so—if your home is heated by Gas.

Do away with old-fashioned heating methods—have an automatic Gas Burner slipped in your old coal furnace or boiler. Then, just light it and you can stay out of your cellar till Spring, if you want to. No "cold-house" in the morning.

No ashes to haul away. No wearying, vexing furnace-firing. Better health for all your family. Even, dependable automatic heat—regulated right from your living room.

COST TO OPERATE

Have our heating engineer survey your present heating plant. He will give you a reasonably approximate cost of heating your home by this Gas method. Phone now—no obligation.
